A bill for the benefit of James O'Hara, deputy Sheriff of Grant county; passed.

A bill to incorporate the Germantown Circulating Library Company; passed.

A bill for the benefit of certain common schools in this commonwealth.

Mr. RICE proposed to amend by inserting Lawrence county.

Amendment concurred in, and bill passed.

A bill to authorize the County Court of McCrackin to sell the Seminary lands in said county; passed.

A bill for the benefit of the Maysville Guards; passed.

A bill for the benefit of John M. Morton, authorizing him to bring three slaves into the State; passed.

Amendment to Senate bill incorporating the Cynthiana and Millersburg Turnpike Company; concurred in.

The H. R. resolutions in relation to Maj. P. N. Barbour, and amendment of the Senate striking out provision for presentation of a sword to the widow of the deceased, to which the H. R. had disagreed. The Senate receded from its amendment.

On motion of Mr. Heady, it was directed to ask leave to withdraw from H. R. the amendment of its disagreement to a bill to revive and amend the act incorporating the Shepherdsville and Louisville Turnpike Company, and the vote by which the Senate disagreed was reconsidered.

The Kentucky river bill being still under consideration.

Mr. TODD proposed an amendment, providing that the County Courts of the counties named in the bill, should not be authorized to subscribe to said improvement, unless a majority of those voting at a poll directed to be opened in each county should instruct them so to do; which was accepted by Mr. J. SPEED SMITH.

Mr. PEYTON opposed the whole measure on the ground that it was opening again the door to a wild and ruinous system of internal improvement, and on the ground that the employment of convict labor was impolitic both as to the cost which he contended was greater at the rate estimated in the bill—forty cents per day—than other labor, and from every other consideration, as affecting the convict himself.

The public works he contended, upon the rivers, had been a dead loss to the State—the expenses greatly exceeding the revenue derived from them. The amount appropriated in the bill, Mr. P. said, was more than really appeared upon its face. The State was in debt to the Penitentiary for the erection of buildings, to an amount which would be greater than all its profits during the contract with its present keepers, and therefore, in making the estimate, the forty cents per day for 100 convicts must be considered as actually drawn from the Treasury. This would make the appropriation amount to $22,000 instead of $10,000.

The people of Kentucky, Mr. P. contended, were opposed to entering again upon the system of internal improvement, and he would vote against this, and all other measures of the kind.

The debate was continued further by Messrs. J. SPEED SMITH and PEYTON, upon pretty much the same grounds assumed in their first remarks.

Mr. HELM said that he was opposed to running the State in debt, by commencing again a wild system of internal improvement, but if by the means proposed, contemplating only a small outlay of money, he could complete a work which had been commenced and suspended, he would be willing to do so. A difference of opinion existed among those living on this river, as to the advantages they would derive from the continuation of slack water—he would be willing to compromise by giving them two more locks and dams, which would extend the improvement up into the great agricultural region, where they so much desired it.

Mr. EVANS moved to lay the bill on the table. The yeas and nays on this motion were as follows:

YEAS.—Messrs. Boyd, Bradley, Bramlette, Brien, Crenshaw, Evans, Henderson, Holloway, James, Marshall, Patterson, Peyton, Rice, South, Thurman and Walker—16.

NAYS.—Messrs. Bristow, Butler, Draffin, Hardin, Harris, Hawkins, Heady, Helm, Key, Russell, Slaughter, Speed Smith, Swope, Taylor, Thornton, Todd, Walker and Williams—12.

Mr. HARRIS moved to strike out the bill on its final passage.

So the Senate refused to lay the bill on the table.

Mr. HELM moved to amend, by providing for the convict labor beyond its due proportion of the proceeds of convict labor under the contract with the lessees; adopted.

Also—providing that the State should first receive five per cent. on the amount expended, before interest should be paid on individual or county subscriptions; adopted.

The question being on engrossing and reading the bill a third time, the yeas and nays were as follows:

YEAS.—Messrs. Butler, Draffin, Hawkins, Helm, Key, Russell, Speed Smith, Swope, Taylor, Thornton, Todd and Williams—12.

NAYS.—Messrs. Boyd, Bradley, Bramlette, Brien, Bristow, Crenshaw, Evans, Hardin, Harris, Heady, Henderson, James, Marshall, Patterson, Peyton, Rice, South, Thomas, Thurman, Walker and Wall—21.

So the Senate refused to order the bill to be read a third time.

Mr. WALKER, from committee on Propositions and Grievances, reported a bill from H. R. to allow an additional Justice of the Peace to Spencer county.

Mr. HEADY moved to amend by providing that the act should not take effect until Zachariah Terrell's commission expires; lost.—Yeas 13, nays 14.

They bill was then passed—Yeas 16, nays 11.

On motion, the Senate adjourned.

IN SENATE.

TUESDAY, FEB. 23.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Scott.

Mr. JAMES asked and obtained leave to change his vote on the question of laying on the table, the bill to provide for the completion of the Kentucky River Navigation. He desired to record his vote in the negative.

Mr. JAMES offered a resolution, which was adopted, that the Senate will hereafter meet at 9 o'clock in the morning.

Mr. PEYTON presented a petition, which was referred.

Mr. HEADY asked and obtained leave to bring in a bill to amend the duelling laws, making the oath to date from January 1, 1847; and by consent, reported said bill, and it was passed.

Special Order of the Day.

A bill to authorize the issue of State bonds for certain purposes.

The 1st section provides that the Governor may issue six per cent. bonds, redeemable in 30 years, and exchange them for the five per cent. Internal Improvement bonds, when it can be done with advantage to the State.

The 2d section provides, that the office of clerk of the Sinking Fund shall be abolished, and the duties performed by the 1st Auditor.

Mr. HELM explained the object of the bill, to reduce the amount of the public debt, which could be effected by an exchange of the bonds proposed. The six per cent. bonds could be sold at their par value, and the five per cent. bonds could be bought at a discount of sixteen dollars in the hundred. The services of the clerk could be very easily dispensed with, by allowing the 1st Auditor a small sum for additional clerk hire.

Mr. PEYTON proposed to strike out the second section, and insert a section repealing the law authorizing the appointment of a clerk of the Sinking Fund, and requiring the 1st Auditor to perform the duties of clerk, for which $100 shall be allowed him for extra clerk hire; and the 3d section, providing certain regulations in the disbursement of the moneys of the Sinking Fund.

Mr. PEYTON opposed the bill, on the ground that the public debt would be increased, instead of diminished, and that the services of a clerk were indispensably necessary to the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, and could not be properly performed by the 1st Auditor, in addition to his other duties.

Mr. HELM remarked, that the bill had been framed at the suggestion of an officer associated with the Board of Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, who told him that the services of the Clerk of the board could be dispensed with; and the Governor and others of the board, were anxious for the privilege of exchanging the bonds as provided in the bill. Mr. H. disclaimed any other motive, than to subvert the interests of the Sinking Fund.

Mr. PEYTON supported the positions he had taken against the bill, that the public debt would be increased by the operation, and that the services of the Clerk could not be dispensed with.

Mr. BUTLER and Mr. TODD contended that the calculations of the Senator from Hardin were correct, and that the public debt would be diminished if the proposed exchange could be effected, upwards of one hundred thousand dollars in thirty years.

Mr. JAMES thought that Senators were mistaken in the calculations they had made—he looked upon the bill as having a tendency to increase the public burthens.

Mr. HELM suggested that the bill provided, that the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund should not exchange the bonds, unless it could be made with advantage to the State, and he was willing to trust them to guard the interests of the State in this respect.

Mr. WILLIAMS remarked, that if this bill should pass, the five per cent. bonds would immediately advance in the market. He doubted the correctness of the calculation made by the Senator from Hardin.

Mr. WALL went into a calculation to show that the interest, if the exchange could be effected as proposed, would be the same, while the principal at the end of 30 years, would be greatly reduced; but doubted whether the holders of the five per cent. bonds would consent to such an exchange.

The motion to strike out the second section prevailed.

Mr. HARRIS moved to amend the amendment, by inserting $150, instead of $100, which was accepted by Mr. HELM.

Upon the amendments proposed by Mr. HELM, the yeas and nays were as follows, viz:

YEAS.—Messrs. Bradley, Brien, Bristow, Draffin, Evans, Hardin, Harris, Hawkins, Heady, Helm, James, Key, Marshall, McNary, Rice, Speed Smith, South, Thurman and Williams—19.

NAYS.—Messrs. Boyd, Butler, Crenshaw, Fox, Henderson, Patterson, Peyton, Russell, Slaughter, Swope, Taylor, Thornton, Todd, Walker and Wall—15.

So the amendment was adopted.

Mr. JAMES moved to strike out the first section of the bill.

Mr. HELM moved the previous question, which was sustained, by a vote of 21 to 13.

The bill was then ordered to be engrossed and read a third time.

On motion of Mr. HELM, the bill was ordered to be read a third time on to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

Mr. KEY, from the joint committee on Banks, made a report, which was ordered to be printed.

Mr. J. SPEED SMITH asked and obtained leave to bring in a bill to incorporate companies to construct Locks, Nos. 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10, on Kentucky river, which was referred to select committee.

Mr. JAMES, from committee on Finance, reported a bill from H. R. for the benefit of Chas. Caines, late sheriff of Lewis, with amendments for the benefit of A. Reynolds and W. D. Tinsley, of Caldwell; concurred in and passed.

Also—a bill for the benefit of B. A. Looman and W. G. A. Looman.

Mr. BOYD moved to amend the bill, by striking out the appropriation of $25 and insert $40, and urged the amendment in an earnest and eloquent speech. The amendment was adopted, and the bill as amended, was passed.

Mr. FOX, from committee on Education, reported a bill from H. R. for the benefit of the Kentucky Institution for the Education of the Blind, and it was made the special order for to-morrow at eleven o'clock.

Railroad Bills.

On motion of Mr. BUTLER, the Senate resolved itself into committee of the whole, Mr. SWOPE in the chair, for the consideration of the bill to incorporate the Licking and Lexington Railroad Company, with the amendment pending, to incorporate the Louisville and Frankfort Railroad Company.

Mr. WALL explained, that his opposition to the amendment on yesterday arose not from opposition to the amendment in itself, for he was favorable to the measure proposed in it, but he was fearful that its connection with the measure proposed in the original bill, which had already passed the other house, would jeopard the final passage of that bill in the other house if sent back to them at this late period of the session. He would, however, withdraw all opposition to the union of the two projects.

Mr. BUTLER expressed gratification at this announcement, and disclaimed any intention, in offering the amendment, to do any thing that would injure the original bill.

Mr. J. SPEED SMITH proposed to amend the amendment, by imposing an annual tax of 25 cents on each share of stock, and reserving to the State, at any time, the right to extend the charter to any other point, and making the stock of the original road and the extension, joint stock.

Mr. HELM proposed a substitute, that when the Louisville road should be completed, the same tax shall be levied on the capital stock as on other taxable property, and that the President of the Louisville road shall annually make a report to the Legislature of the profits of the road, and when they shall equal six per cent. upon capital, the Legislature reserves the right to lay same tax on each $100 worth of receipts as is now laid on other taxable property.

The substitute was adopted and the amendment prevailed.

The committee then rose and reported the bill and amendment to the Senate.

Upon the final passage of the bill as amended, the yeas and nays were as follows, viz:

YEAS.—Messrs. Boyd, Bramlette, Bristow, Butler, Crenshaw, Harris, Hawkins, Helm, Holloway, Key, Patterson, Peyton, Russell, Slaughter, Speed Smith, Swope, Taylor, Thomas, Todd, Walker, Wall and Williams—22.

NAYS.—Messrs. Bradley, Brien, Draffin, Evans, Fox, Hardin, Heady, Henderson, James, Marshall, McNary, Rice, South, Thornton and Thurman—15.

So the bill to incorporate the Licking and Lexington, and Louisville and Frankfort Railroads was passed.

On motion the Senate took a recess until three o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

Mr. TODD, by permission, from select committee, reported a bill to authorize the Superintendent of Public Instruction to make report to the 2d Auditor, of the Commissioners report in district No. 4, in the county of Fayette; passed.

Mr. PEYTON, by permission, from committee on Penitentiary, reported a bill in relation to the Penitentiary, and requiring a new bond from the Keeper; passed.

Mr. JAMES, from committee on Finance, reported a bill for the benefit of A. G. Kyle, of Mercer county; refunding $750 improperly paid in taxes; passed.

Mr. PATTERSON, on his motion, was directed to ask permission of H. R. to withdraw report of disagreement of Senate to a bill to amend the law on the subject of runaway slaves.

Orders of the Day.

A bill from H. R. in relation to the Penitentiary; providing for the erection of a blacksmith shop, at a cost not exceeding $3,500, and digging a sewer at a cost not exceeding $200.

Mr. PEYTON and Mr. CRENshaw supported the bill, on the ground that the money required would come out of the profits of the institution, and the improvements proposed were necessary to the health of the convicts, and the good of the institution.

Mr. HARDIN could not see the distinction drawn by Senators. If the money were not used in erecting this building, it would of course go into the treasury. Its appropriation then, to this object, was, to all intents and purposes, taking it from the treasury.

Mr. J. SPEED SMITH, advocated the bill, as it would give employment to surplus labor in the Penitentiary.

Mr. HARRIS said that he had been in the Legislature in one house or the other for a good many years, and he did not recollect a single session in which appropriations for some improvement in the Penitentiary had not been made, and thus the whole profits of the institution had been absorbed.

Mr. H. concluded, by moving to refer the bill to committee on Penitentiary, which was adopted.

A Senate bill to prevent the wanton destruction of fish, with amendments from H. R.—amendments concurred in.

An engrossed bill, to amend an act to reduce into one the several acts concerning strays; passed.

An engrossed bill, to construct a bridge over Buck creek in Pulaski county. Lost—Yeas 11, nays 20.

A bill from H. R., further to increase the liabilities of sheriffs and coroners; passed.

A bill from H. R. for the benefit of Woolery Eversole.

Mr. SOUTHWELL proposed a substitute.

On motion of Mr. HENDERSON, the bill and substitute were laid upon the table.

A bill from H. R. for the benefit of the citizens residing on the middle fork of Kentucky river in Clay county; passed.

A bill from H. R. to extend the Mechanics' lien law to the counties of Bourbon, Christian, Madison, Livingston, Shelby, Scott, Carroll and Franklin.

On motion of Mr. J. SPEED SMITH, Madison was stricken out of the bill.

On motion of Mr. HAWKINS, the counties of Gallatin and Clark, were inserted in the bill.

The bill as thus amended, was passed.

On motion of Mr. BUTLER, a bill from H. R. to amend the charter of the turnpike road leading from the city of Louisville, by the mouth of Salt river and Elizabethtown to the State line, and for other purposes, was taken up.

The bill was discussed earnestly by Mr. BUTLER for, and Mr. HELM against it.

Upon the question on ordering the bill to be engrossed and read a third time, the vote stood—Yeas 13, nays 18.

On motion of Mr. PATTERSON, the vote by which the Senate disagreed to a bill from H. R. to amend the law concerning runaway slaves, was reconsidered.

Mr. PATTERSON explained the object of the law to be, to apply the provisions of the present law giving compensation ($75 00) to persons apprehending runaway slaves, to cases in which slaves belonging to persons living out of the State, may be apprehended in any other State, and lodged within any jail of this State.

Mr. WILLIAMS offered an amendment, that the compensation shall be paid by the person who has the fee simple estate in the slave so apprehended; adopted.

Mr. HARDIN moved to strike out the words, "any other State," and insert "any non-slaveholding State;" adopted.

The bill as amended was then passed.

Mr. MARSHALL asked and obtained leave to record his vote on the resolution reported by the committee on Executive Affairs, in the case of the Secretary of State. He would vote no on the substitute proposed by Mr. Crenshaw—and aye on the resolution reported from committee.

Mr. J. SPEED SMITH, from committee on Internal Improvement, reported a bill from H. R. to authorize the County Court of Campbell to change a State road; passed.

Also—a bill from H. R. to amend the road law of Bracken county; passed.

Also—a bill from H. R. for the relief of James Kenfro, of Knox county; authorizing County Court to investigate and settle his claim.

Mr. HENDERSON advocated the passage of the bill; passed.

Also—a bill from H. R. allowing flat boats and other craft, except steam boats, laden with the produce of Carroll county, to pass over Lock and Dam No. 1, on Kentucky river, free of toll, in time of high water.

Mr. HAWKINS urged the passage of the bill.

Mr. McNARY offered an amendment, permitting flat boats and other craft, on Kentucky and Green and Barren rivers, to pass free of toll when they do not go through any of the locks; lost.

The bill was then passed.

On motion, the Senate adjourned.

THE COMPREHENSIVE READERS,
Published by MORTON & GRISWOLD, Louisville, Ky.

CONSIST OF THE FOLLOWING:
THE NEW PRIMER, 26 pages, 18mo. 36
THE FIRST READER, with Eng's., 96 36
THE SECOND READER, do., 144 36
THE THIRD READER, do., 200 36
THE FOURTH READER, do., 200 36

Particular features of these Readers.
They are prepared with elegant wood cuts, adapted to the capacity of the pupil, and gradually advancing, so as to carry him along with an easy but increasing effort in ascending to the higher kinds of composition.

The Primer begins with the alphabet. To interest and excite the little learner, numerous cuts of familiar objects are employed.

The First Reader consists of easy lessons, in simple language. The subjects are such as catch the attention and excite curiosity.

The Second Reader carries the pupil still further onward, without the danger of studying him with lessons beyond his comprehension, leading him into the bad habit of reading with out thinking.

The Third Reader, brings the pupil to a wider field of literature. This volume contains a full series of lessons on the subject of morals and manners, and is calculated to supply the common deficiency of schools in this respect. It contains a series of Rules on Reading, the mode of applying which, is peculiar and efficient.

These Books are ORIGINAL, not a line having been copied from any School Book in common use.

The younger works contain many beautiful Engravings, designed and executed expressly for these books, by the first artists. These engravings are not a mere ornament, but serve to ensure the constant presence and attention of the young reader's mind and heart in the progress of the lessons.

Mr. Goodrich is a great benefactor of the human race. He has long been devoted to the benevolent object of establishing a proper system of education. — N. Y. Paper.

"The exceeding great popularity of Mr. Goodrich's writings will secure to this work a favorable reception, and indeed it deserves such a reputation."—Journal of Education.
